Executive Summary:

A Voluntary Blood Donation Camp was organised by the Women Fraternity of Rajiv Gandhi University in collaboration with National Service Scheme, RGU Unit, National Cadet Corps, RGU Unit, Arunachal Voluntary Blood Donor's Organisation (AVBDO) and Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat today on 4th March 2021 to commemorate the month-long celebration of International Women's Day 2021 at RGUTA Office, RGU, Rono Hills.

In his welcome address, Dr. Anil Mili, Coordinator, NSS emphasised the importance of women in our lives. Assistant Professor, Ms. Champa Tanga, Coordinator, Voluntary Blood Donation Camp narrated how the ABVDO with the motto of 'Give Blood Save life' came into being in 2008. She further enumerated the details of programs successfully conducted in the past 12 years which being 846 Voluntary Blood Donation Camps, 36 Mega Blood Donation Camps and 10866 Awareness Camps. So far, a total of 2,32,000 Blood Units have been collected via these camps. Furthermore, ABVDO has a count of 2000+ voluntary blood donors and the number is ever increasing.

This was followed with the felicitation of the guests, Shri. Ramesh Jeke, Founder of ABVDO, Dr. Tashi Pale, Pathology Medical Officer, Ms. Chongneithem Lhouvum, State Coordination Officer, State Blood Transfusion Council (SBTC) and also the medical team.

Ramesh Jeke, the Chairperson, ABVDO recounted how he chose Service to Humanity over his career in 2008 when he decided to form the organisation rather than continuing his course in NDA, Pune. He cited two stories wherein the importance of blood donation was emphasised in Itanagar.

The Pro Vice Chancellor, RGU, Professor Amitava Mitra requested everyone to pledge themselves as blood donor. The Registrar, RGU, Dr. N.T. Rikam congratulated the Women Fraternity of RGU and all other stakeholders of the program. He motivated everyone to donate blood and emphasised on the teachers' role in this.

Professor Saket Kushwaha, Vice Chancellor, RGU lauded the women fraternity of RGU for the successful event. Emphasizing on the need to motivate ourselves towards good deeds, he spoke of the importance of every individual in donating blood irrespective of their size. Further, the Vice Chancellor also promised a seed money to the RGUTA for conducting blood donation camps quarterly. He suggested that the blood donation camps be held on holidays so that everyone could donate and as such these habits are inculcated in the children as well by seeing their parents and family donate.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Assistant Professor, Mr. John G. Gangmei who extended his thanks to all the guests, the participants and the stakeholders. He stated- “Blood donation is the real art of humanity”

A total of 127 donors checked in for the event of which 86 units of blood were collected. The blood donors included faculty, teaching and non teaching staff, their family members, students, scholars, NCC cadets and NSS volunteers.

Objective:

The purpose to organize a Voluntary blood donation camp is to motivate people to donate blood and social works.

The purpose of blood donation camp to select a suitable donor whose blood will be safe to the recipient and who himself shall not in any way be harmed by blood donation.

Expected Outcomes:

Conducting voluntary blood donation camp in regular basis will increase the stock of blood units in blood bank which is needed for optimum functioning of the health-care system. The organization of blood donation camp should be best and safe to the patient/recipients and to the blood donor.

Medical & AVBDO Team:

1. Shri. Ramesh Jeke, Arunachal Voluntary Blood Donor's Organisation (AVBDO), Arunachal Pradesh
