परिपत्र CIRCULAR

It has been observed that few Departments are forwarding the application of students to the Administrative Block (Academic Branch/Examination Branch) for re-admission to PG/UG programmes after a gap of 6 months/1 year.

In this regard, following points may be noted:

1. Under CBCS system, duration for completion of PG programme is 8 semesters (4 years) and UG programme is 10 semesters (5 years).
2. For programmes under NEP 2020, it shall be guided by the SoP/guidelines of NEP 2020 issued vide Notification No.AC-2424/NCr.F/2023 dated 20.08.2025.
3. If a student complete a semester with or without Back paper (promoted to next semester) and discontinue/ did not take admission in subsequent next higher semester due to various reasons for a year or more and desire to re-join/re-admit shall be eligible for admission to complete the course as regular student provided student has tenure to complete the course/programme.
4. The duration of the course/programme is calculated in year-wise w.e.f. year of admission and first semester exam (December/Odd semester).
5. Therefore, as per Ordinance, guidelines and approved Academic Calendar, respective Departments/Institutes may do the admission process from its end without forwarding the application of students to administration after proper verification of all documents/records.
6. If anything not mentioned herewith and any complex nature of issue arise, the matter may be forwarded with detail report/document for appropriate decision.

This is issued with approval of the Competent Authority.
